Quiz show

WWA was an answer – make that, question – on the popular syndicated TV game show Jeopardy.

On the January 30 telecast, in the category “Every Year,” host Alex Trebek revealed this $400 clue: “The convention of these writers of America takes place on the frontier and gives the Lariat Award.”

The first contestant to ring in responded correctly: “Who are the Western Writers of America?”

TRAIL NOTES

Will Rogers Medallions

Winners and finalists of the 14th annual Will Rogers Medallion Awards were honored in Fort Worth, Texas, in October.

“The quality and level of excellence of the books being awarded keeps going up, and this year was a prime example of that,” executive director Charles Williams said. “It is a tribute both to the enduring appeal of the West and to the high quality of publications being produced today.”

Among the winners:

Cowboy Poetry: Split Reins by Deanna Dickenson McCall (The Frontier Project)

Western Fiction: An Obvious Fact/The Highwayman by Craig Johnson (Viking)

Western Nonfiction: The Oklahomans: The Story of Oklahoma by John J. Dwyer (Red River Press)

Inspirational Fiction: West of Penance by Thomas D. Clagett (Five Star Publishing)

Western Romance: A Place For Me/Lin by Harlan Hague (Five Star Publishing)

Western Fiction-Younger Readers: The Green Colt: The Adventures of Wilder Good by S.J. Dahlstrom (Paul Dry Books)

Western Fiction-Young Readers, Illustrated: The Bat Book by Conrad J. Stora (Bobolink Media)
